Rated 5 out of 5 by Anonymous from Charming Roblox is so charming, even though I am 11 years old I still love this game. My sister is 8 years old, and she also loves this game. She plays roblox more than me. We always play it together, and we sometimes even make a little brother character named Blox. Every night we would ask our mom if we could play roblox longer, because we didn't want to stop. I love the update where when you or your friends spell a word, something pops up in the middle of the screen to tell you the number of letters in that word. The only thing I think is bad about this game is that you have to have headphones on if you want to move around, and since I usually play with headphones in it makes it harder for every one else to hear what my sister is saying (but they can still hear her). I love this game so much. I would definitely recommend it to my friends.

If that never happens then the servers are going to crash and the game will die. If you take a look at the way ROBLOX's developers are trying to make even more money, you will see that they do not want to add any real value to their games. They want people to spend real money for fake money (robux) so they're going to make it so that it's impossible for someone who doesn't pay for robux to exist within their virtual world.

ROBLOX games have made the news many times in the past. Below is a short list of some of them. Prior to 2021-2021, ROBLOX game developers were responsible for any known instances of hacking that happened in ROBLOX. There were also older instances where hackers had not yet discovered the community, but eventually did so, and started making exploits on their games that were very popular (such as "Hacker Escape"). Hackers also used an exploit to gain access to admin privileges on a game called The War Factory, which had over 500,000 concurrent players at once. When this was discovered, the hacker was immediately taken down by ROBLOX's staff.
