In August 2021, a former employee posted a blog post detailing the company's "toxic" work culture and poor working conditions. The employee claimed that she was fired after speaking out about these issues and later filed a wrongful termination lawsuit against the company as well as several co-workers associated with her firing. The suit, which for the most part was dismissed, claimed that former CEO David Baszucki played an integral role in her firing as he forced the team to "ignore basic standards of professionalism". It also cited him for saying that "female workers in [his] office and in the tech industry were 'annoying' and should not serve in a high-ranking position."

I have been playing roblox games for about two years now. I started out with one of the mini-games (Hotel Tycoon 2). This game was very simple; all you had to do was buy a hotel and look after your guests. As time went on, my friends and I found a new game we wanted to play together (Battlefield 3). It was similar to Call of Duty with better graphics. We liked the game so much that we wanted to transfer our characters from Hotel Tycoon 2 into Battlefield 3. One night, my friend and I were playing on roblox and entered into a "lobby". In a lobby, you can find friends who are online playing games or creating new ones. We had two other friends join in and we started talking about which game we wanted to play together. The next day we all decided on Robloxian Life.
